government, the foundations of health law, and an introduction to legal thinking. This portion of the course will also provide a survey of a variety of topics that involve the intersection of health care and the law.

Part II: The remainder of the course will provide the student continued opportunity to practice the skills developed in the first part of the course. The content will focus on issues around public health and protection of individual rights; regulation of individual decision-making; and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course students will have a general understanding of the role of governments and law in promoting and protecting health, including the functions of courts, legislatures, and administrative agencies in relation to health care law and policy; understand the relationship between the legal system, health care providers, and patients; be able to identify and analyze legal issues in health care; and be able to effectively communicate, both orally and in writing, the interpretive understanding of a case, statute, and complex regulatory scheme.

Specific learning objectives include the ability to:

- 1. Distinguish and discuss the role of the federal government and the various state governments in promoting and protecting the health of citizens;
- 2. Identify, distinguish, and discuss the relationship between community health issues and individual health issues;
- 3. Describe the evolution of the role of the physician and the patient in health care decisions;
- 4. Identify and analyze legal issues in health care; and
- 5. Communicate the interpretive understanding of a case or statute, or a complex regulatory scheme, both orally and in writing.

ENROLLMENT:

Cap of 40 students.

ENROLLMENT DEADLINE:

Students will be permitted to add this class only until September 16, 2016.

University of Rochester PSC 236/PH 236 Course Syllabus Fall 2016

LATE ASSIGNMENTS:

The late assignment policy does not apply to in class assignments. Students must complete in class assignments in class and hand them in before leaving the room.

If an out-of-class assignment will be late, the student must notify the instructor at least one day before the date that the assignment is due, explain the reason for lateness, and negotiate a new due date. In all other cases, late assignments will be graded down 5% for each day late.

FINAL GRADE SCALE

Grades for assignments for this course are assigned a numerical value. The final grade is comprised of the cumulative points earned.

	\mathcal{C}	1	L
А	=	93-100	(Superior)
A-	=	90-92
$\mathbf{B}+$	=	87-89
В	=	83-86	(Above Average)
B-	=	80-82

D+	=	67-69
D	=	63-66
D-	=	60-62	(Minimum Passing Grade)
E	< 60		(Failure)

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA):

The University of Rochester is committed to providing equal educational and employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities, in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1991 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. To ensure equality of access for students with disabilities, the University provides reasonable accommodations, including auxiliary aids and modifications to courses, programs, services, activities or facilities. Exceptions will be made in those situations where the accommodation would fundamentally alter the nature of the program, cause undue hardship on the school, or jeopardize the health or safety of others. Accommodations must specifically address the functional limitations of the disability.

The process of receiving accommodations begins with self-identification. When a student chooses to self-identify a disability, documentation should be sent to Learning Assistance Services, see, <http://www.rochester.edu/College/las/>.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Due Dates	Assignments	Percentage
Unannounced	In-class exercises	40
9/19	Case brief questionnaire I	15
10/5	Case brief questionnaire II	20
12/7	Case brief questionnaire II	25

EVALUATION CRITERIA AND LEARNING ACTIVITIES

There are no exams in this class or papers due.

1. In-class assignments

During five class sessions, each student will write and turn in answers to questions about the assigned material. The questions may ask the students to link the reading to the lecture and/or discussion. These in-class assignments are worth 10% each. Students may drop one assignment during the semester to allow for unanticipated absences.

2. Case brief questionnaires

Reading legal documents is a skill that requires practice. The case brief questionnaires will provide you with questions to facilitate a close reading and understanding of the different components of primary material.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE OF TOPICS

Highlighted classes have guest speakers. Asterisked classes have case questioesadue at the beginning of class.
