

DANIEL WAYNE RINN
University of Rochester
Department of History

EDUCATION

Spring 2020
(anticipated)

PUBLIC HUMANITIES AND COMMUNITY-ENGAGED RESEARCH

"What is a Waterway Anyway?" Public Lecture Series given in conjunction with the Museum Association of New York/Smithsonian Water/Ways exhibit in New York. Cities included: Aurora, September 2019; Syracuse, October 2019; Kingston, January 2020; Albany, January 2020; and East Hampton, March 2020.

"Jeanne Robert Foster: Naturalism in the Wilderness and the City," Society for U.S. Intellectual History, New York, NY, November 2019.

2017-2018 Public Humanities Fellow, Humanities New York

2014 – 2018 Aida DiPace Fellowship, University of Rochester History Department

2014 – 2018 Graduate Fellowship, University of Rochester History Department

2010 – 2012 Graduate Teaching Fellowship, University of Oregon, Department of History

TRAVEL GRANTS

2017 & 2018

Writing Consultant, Writing, Speaking, and Argument Program, University of Rochester,
September 2014 — present.

AFFILIATIONS

Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy

Society for U.S. Intellectual History