COURSE POLICIES

I take cheating and plagiarism very seriously; it constitutes ideas and unfair advantage over other students. Please take Honesty Quiz #1 to test your knowledge of the University's code. You will be asked to insert and sign the compliance pledge the University's code of honesty for these assignments: coalition overview paper, issue policy brief, public comments, and legislative testimony. "I affirm that I have not given or received any unauthorized help on this assignment, and that this work is my own."

Your success in this course is important to me, and it is the policy and practice of the University of Rochester to create inclusive learning environments consistent with federal and state law. If you have a documented disability (or need to have a disability documented), and need an "accommodation," please contact me (m.mcnulty@rochester.edu) privately as soon as possible so that we can discuss with the relevant office how to meet your specific needs and the requirements of the course. If you're not sure what counts as a disability, check out this page: <https://www.rochester.edu/college/disability/faculty/commodisabilities.html>
